

THE WHITE HOUSE
WASHINGTON

February 23, 2023

Her Excellency
Dr. Vjosa Osmani
President of the Republic of Kosovo
Pristina

Dear Madam President:

We stand at an inflection point in history – the decisions our democracies make now will determine the direction of the world for decades to come. So this March, the United States, Costa Rica, the Netherlands, the Republic of Korea, and the Republic of Zambia will co-host the second Summit for Democracy – bringing together leaders from around the world to demonstrate and discuss how democracies can continue to deliver for all of our people.

On behalf of the Summit's co-hosts, I would like to invite you to attend the virtual Leaders' plenary session on March 29, 2023, to have a candid conversation about democracy's power and potential around the world. Additionally, on March 30, 2023, your government is invited to participate in a minister-level, regional gathering to discuss how the public and private sectors can work together to advance our shared democratic values and vision for the world. A formal invitation to this event will be sent separately by a co-host, and we look forward to sharing additional details with your team shortly.

Most importantly, we look forward to working with you and the people of Kosovo to continue building on the progress we made during the first Summit for Democracy in December 2021. Together, we can continue to uphold human dignity, unleash human potential, and deliver peace and prosperity for all of our people. Because as democracies, if we work together, nothing is beyond our reach.

Sincerely,
